Description

This quaint two-bedroom ground floor apartment opens on to a wooden deck that sits right on the water in Mullins on the west coast of the island. Situated right next to 3 local restaurants on the water near to Mullins Beach with a bus stop just a-stones throw away, your biggest decision every day is to decide whether to cook, eat next door or just order in!

Mullins Beach is very popular and well know for its water sport activities, beach bars and night life. Cassandra II gives easy access to all of this along with Speightstown just a few miles to the north and Holetown a few miles further in the opposite direction.

The unit offers two bedrooms, one with 2 singles and the other with a double bed. They share a bathroom and open onto the kitchen/living area. Ideal for two couples or a small family you can have breakfast at the breakfast table and lunch and dinner on the deck. There is access to the sea via a beach gate with an outdoor shower to wash off the sand on your way back into the unit.
